St. James's, November 24.

THE following Addreſſes have been preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Freemen of your Majeſty's ancient Town of Rye, and of others, Inhabitants of the ſaid Town and it's Neighbourhood.

IMPRESSED with the livelieſt Gratitude for the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and paternal Government, we beg Leave to expreſs our Horror and Indignation at the moſt atrocious and daſtardly Aſſault offered to your Majeſty's Perſon in your Way to and from Parliament, and to preſent our moſt cordial Congratulations on your providential Eſcape.

We hope and truſt that your Majeſty will uſe your utmoſt Endeavours to bring to Juſtice the Authors of theſe flagitious Proceedings, and that, with the Aſſiſtance of your Parliament, you will take Meaſures that may prevent a Repetition of ſuch treaſonable Attempts.

Permit us, Sire, humbly to offer our Aſſurances of inviolable Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government, both which that the Almighty may long preſerve uninjured ſhall be our fervent Prayer.

[Preſented by Thomas Lamb, Eſq; Mayor, and Charles Long, Eſq; and the Hon. Robert Banks Jenkinſon, Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Town.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Officers and Privates of the Rye Troop of Gentlemen and Yeomanry.

STRUCK with Horror at the baſe Attack and Inſult that has been lately offered to your Majeſty, permit us to approach you with the moſt heartfelt Joy

Joy and Congratulations that your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon remains uninjured from an Attempt that human Wiſdom or Power could not prevent, for which Bleſſing we fervently pour forth our Gratitude to Heaven. At the ſame Time we muſt humbly beg Leave to offer ourſelves to reſiſt, with every Exertion in our Power, any open Attack that may be made againſt your Royal Perſon, Crown, or Dignity; and we hope, though few in Number, that your Majeſty will look upon us as an efficient Portion of your Majeſty's Safety and Protection in every Caſe that can call forth the true Energy and Sacrifice of the Lives and Property of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects.

[Preſented by Captain Lamb.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Wigan, in the County of Lancaſter, in Common Hall aſſembled, beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our ſincere and cordial Congratulations on your happy and providential Eſcape from the late daring and abominable Outrage and Attack upon your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon: Permit us to expreſs our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of thoſe wicked Principles which could inſtigate the Perpetrators.

That it may pleaſe Heaven to bleſs your Majeſty with a Continuance of Health and Happineſs, and that your Majeſty long may reign in the Breaſts of a loyal and affectionate People, is our fervent Prayer.

Given under our Common Seal, this 10th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

Thomas Doncaſter, Mayor.

[Preſented by Orlando Bridgeman, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Tradeſmen and Inhabitants at large of the Town of Wigan, in the County of Lancaſter, viewing, as we do, with the utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation, the late atrocious and diabolical Attack upon your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, humbly beg Leave to offer our warmeſt Congratulations upon your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the intended Aſſaſſination.

Happy it is that the Views of the few deluded Wretches, who thus daringly and outrageouſly aſſailed your Majeſty, fell ſhort of Conſummation, and we truſt that equal at leaſt, if not ſuperior Diſappointment will ever attend the Schemes of thoſe wicked Miſcreants and their vile Supporters, which have for their Object ſimilar Conſequences.

For our own Parts, we declare it to be our moſt ardent Wiſh, that during the Continuance of your Majeſty's Reign, which we ſincerely hope will be long and proſperous, unſpeakable Happineſs may ever await you; and it is our firm and determined Reſolution at all Times to ſtand forward, to the utmoſt of our Power, in the Protection of a Sovereign ſo juſtly admired by all his well-principled Subjects, and in Support of that admirable Conſtitution, which a few unprincipled Villains only ſeem wiſhful to overturn.

By the unanimous Order of a public Meeting.

Thomas Doncaſter, Chairman.

[Preſented by John Cotes, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of your ancient Borough and Neighbourhood of Lymington, in the County of Southampton, beg Leave to approach your Preſence with the warmeſt Affection for your Royal Perſon, Family and Government.

We humbly requeſt your Majeſty will accept our ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's Eſcape from the late outrageous Attack on your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon; and it is the fervent and earneſt Prayer of us, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, that you may enjoy a long, proſperous, and happy Reign in the Affections of your People.

[Preſented by Colonel Sir Harry Burrard, Bart.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Horſham, in the County of Suſſex.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Horſham, in the County of Suſſex, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we feel extremely indignant at the diabolical and infamous Attack made on your Royal Perſon on Thurſday the Twenty-ninth Day of October laſt, in going to and returning from the Houſe of Parliament.

At the ſame Time alſo we aſſure your Majeſty we felt extremely happy to find your Royal Perſon was not injured; and we ſincerely thank that great God, the Ruler of all Events, for having prevented a Blow, which would have been ſo ſeverely felt by all your Majeſty's Subjects.

We truſt and hope your Majeſty will be able to find out the Authors and Abettors of this infernal Plot, and puniſh them with ſuch Severity as their Infamy deſerves and ſo loudly calls for.

Permit us to add that we will on all Occaſions, as far as in our Power, protect and ſupport your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government and the Conſtitution of the Kingdom as by Law eſtabliſhed, and that we moſt ardently wiſh your Majeſty may live many, many Years to reign over us, who, with all due Submiſſion, beg Leave to ſubſcribe ourſelves your Majeſty's moſt devoted Servants.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Taunton, being ſenſible of the ineſtimable Bleſſings we derive from the mild Influence of the beſt of Kings, who, with paternal Rule, holds an

an Empire in the Hearts of a loyal People; and deeming ourſelves competent to form a right Notion of the ſuperior Excellence of the Britiſh Conſtitution over all others that in human Wiſdom have ever been contrived, or may by modern Reformers be deviſed, feel ourſelves at the preſent Moment animated with more than our ordinary Zeal to repeat thoſe Declarations of Loyalty and Service, which, upon many previous Occaſions, have been tendered by the Inhabitants of this Town and Neighbourhood at the Foot of your Majeſty's Throne. For we behold with Concern, Sire, a turbulent and factious Spirit predominant in the Hearts of certain ill-deſigning Men, who, with a reſtleſs Anxiety, are continually endeavouring how to turn aſide from their Allegiance the lower Orders of your Majeſty's Subjects, and to inſtil into their weak and unguarded Minds Prejudices againſt your Royal Perſon. To ſuch nefarious Machinations is the daring Outrage to be aſcribed, which was irreverently and ungratefully levelled againſt your ſacred Majeſty, in your Paſſage to the Houſe of Lords, tending to the Diſhonour of the Royal Dignity of the chief Branch of the Legiſlature, to the Subverſion of the civil and religious Ordinances of the Realm, and to the indecorous Infraction of the high Privileges of Parliament. While we view and lament this Corruption in the Hearts of certain infatuated and miſguided Men, we are reſolved, as far as lies in our Power, to look forward with a watchful Eye to the Preſervation of the ſeveral Branches of the Legiſlature, and to ſacrifice our Lives and our Fortunes in maintaining the Unity of a Conſtitution, which may be juſtly deemed the Bulwark of Britiſh Freedom, and the Engliſhman's trueſt Glory.

[Preſented by Alexander Popham, Eſq; and Sir Benjamin Hammet, Knt. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Town.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

SIRE,

WE, the Bailiffs, Principal Burgeſſes, Common Council, Free Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the antient and loyal Town and Borough of Eye, in the County of Suffolk, beg Leave moſt humbly to approach your Majeſty with Sentiments of the utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation at the Perpetrators of the late violent and daring Outrage committed againſt your Majeſty's Perſon, and moſt fervently pray the Supreme Diſpoſer of all Events to protect, and long, very long, continue to us the mild and beneficent Government of the moſt gracious and beſt of Princes.

We take the Liberty to aſſure your Majeſty, that upon all Occaſions we ſhall be ready to give the moſt indubitable Proofs of the pureſt Zeal and Duty which the moſt faithful Subjects can manifeſt, and will ſtrenuouſly diſcountenance any ſeditious Aſſemblies, calculated, by the artful Miſrepreſentation of dangerous and deſigning Men, to excite Diſcontent in the Minds of the leſs-informed Part of the Community, but from which we can ſtate, with Pride and Pleaſure, that this Town and Neighbourhood are happily free.

Given under our Common Seal the 7th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord 1795.

[Preſented by Lord Viſcount Brome, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of your Majeſty's loyal Borough of Wallingford.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and other Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Wallingford, truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's paternal Government, feel ourſelves impelled by Humanity, Affection, Gratitude, and the Senſe we entertain of our own particular and the general Weal, ſo greatly depending on your Majeſty's Life and Health, to approach your Throne to expreſs our firm Attachment to the preſent Conſtitution, our Abhorrence of the late atrocious Attack on your ſacred Perſon, in the Diſcharge of ſo important a Part of the high Duties of your Station, and our humble Truſt, that the ſame Providence, which has ſo frequently and ſignally preſerved you, will continue his Protection to yourſelf, to your Family, and your Kingdoms.

[Preſented by Sir Francis Sykes, Bart. and Francis William Sykes, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Manufacturers and other Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Stockport, in the County Palatine of Cheſter.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Stockport, beg Leave, with all Reſpect and Deference, to preſent our very ſincere and hearty Congratulations on your Majeſty's Eſcape from the late outrageous and wicked Attack made upon your Royal Perſon, in your Way to and from the Parliament Houſe, and to expreſs our Deteſtation and Abhorrence of ſo daring an Inſult offered to your Majeſty, and, through you, to the happy Conſtitution of theſe Realms; a Conſtitution which we conceive to be the beſt calculated for enſuring the Welfare and Happineſs of the People, of any which the World has yet experienced, and the Value and Superiority of which have been never more clearly illuſtrated and evinced than when contraſted with the Anarchy and Confuſion ariſing from that ferocious Democracy, which has been the Scourge of a neighbouring unhappy Nation, and the Introduction of which into this Country there is too much Reaſon to apprehend the late atrocious Outrages were deſigned to favour.

We feel it our Duty to give this public Teſtimony of our Sentiments on the preſent Occaſion, and to aſſure your Majeſty of our firm Determination, in our ſeveral Capacities, and to the utmoſt of our Power, to ſupport the preſent Conſtitution as by Law eſtabliſhed, and to uſe our conſtant Endeavours for the Preſervation of Peace and good Order.

May your Majeſty long enjoy the Bleſſings of this Life, ſafe from the Machinations and Malevolence of your and your Country's Enemies, and may our excellent Conſtitution be perpetuated under the Auſpices of your illuſtrious Family.

[Preſented by the Maſter of the Rolls and Sir George Warren.]

Shaftesbury, November 13, 1795.

AT a numerous and respectable Meeting of the Inhabitants of this Borough, convened by the Mayor, the following Address was unanimously resolved and agreed on.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Capital Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Shaftesbury,

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Capital Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Shaftesbury, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our warmest Congratulations on your late happy Escape from the violent and atrocious Attack made on your Majesty's sacred Person, by some of the most unprincipled of the factious and deluded Part of your Majesty's Subjects,

Permit us at the same Time to express, in the strongest Terms, our utmost Indignation and Abhorrence of the Conduct of these Men; and that during the Remainder of your Reign (which we ardently wish may be long and happy) you may continue to be defended and protected from the Attacks of your open and secret Enemies, is the fervent and earnest Prayer of us, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects.

[Presented by Paul Benfield, Esq; Recorder and one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgesses and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Abingdon, in the County of Berks.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Presence, with the sincerest Expressions of Affection and Regard to your Majesty's sacred Person. We participate in the general Sentiments of Joy and Satisfaction, for your Majesty's providential Escape from those wicked and evil-disposed Persons, who had the Audacity to make the Attack upon your Majesty, while in the Exercise of the Duties of your high Station; and considering the Security and Happiness of the whole Realm to be interwoven with the Safety and Prosperity of your Majesty's Person and Family, we feel the utmost Abhorrence of the Authors and Abettors of that most atrocious Outrage, and earnestly hope they will be discovered, and receive the just Reward of their Crime.

We unite in the ardent Prayer of all true Englishmen and Lovers of their Country, that your Majesty's precious Life and Health may be prolonged to a late Period; and that you may long continue to secure and dispense the Blessings of an excellent Constitution, to a grateful and happy People.

[Presented by Lieutenant-Colonel Loveden, Representative in Parliament for the said Borough.]

The dutiful and affectionate Address of the Worshipful the Mayor, the Portreeve, Aldermen, Burgesses and Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Portreeve, Aldermen, Burgesses and Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Penryn, in Common Hall assembled, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence.

Animated by Zeal and Affection for our lawful Sovereign, and impressed with the highest Respect and Veneration for the Character of the First Magistrate of this Kingdom, it was with the deepest Concern and most heartfelt Regret we heard of the atrocious Attempt made by a misguided and infatuated Multitude on your Majesty's Royal Person, in your Way to and from your Parliament, on the Twenty-ninth Day of October last, and of the Insults and Indignities then offered to your Majesty.

But while we lament the Necessity of this Address, permit us, Royal Sire, to join the general Voice of the Kingdom, in our most sincere and warmest Congratulations to your Majesty on the manifest Interference of Providence in your Safety and the happy and fortunate Escape your Majesty has experienced from their rash and lawless Designs; Designs which, we trust, from the Vigilance of Parliament, will neither remain undetected nor unpunished.

Long may your Majesty continue to sway the Sceptre of this Realm in Safety and Security, blessing your Kingdom with the Continuance of that mild and just Government we have hitherto enjoyed under your Majesty's most auspicious Reign: And deign, Royal Sire, to accept the Repetition of those loyal Sentiments we not long since were allowed to express, in the Renewal of those Assurances we then made of our Readiness to come forward on all Occasions, and at all Times, to assist in the Protection of your Majesty's most sacred Person, and the Preservation of our glorious Constitution, against every nefarious Attempt that may be made to injure the one or overturn the other.

Given under the Common Seal of the Borough, at the particular Request of the Meeting, this 9th Day of November, 1795.

Signed, by Desire of the Meeting,

John Stona, Mayor.

[Presented by Sir Francis Basset, Bart. and Richard Glover, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Corporation and Inhabitants of the Borough and Foreign of Walsall.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Corporation and Inhabitants of the Borough and Foreign of Walsall, anxious to convince your Majesty of our unbounded Affection, and to rescue, as far as we are able, the Character of Englishmen from the Imputation of Disloyalty and Ingratitude, most earnestly entreat Permission to approach your Majesty, and to express our utter Detestation and Abhorrence of the traiterous and abominable Proceedings, by which the Person of the most virtuous and best of Kings has been insulted and violated.

If any Sensation can exceed the Horror and Indignation we feel at this dreadful Attempt, it is that of Joy at the Failure of it. We humbly offer up to Almighty God our unfeigned Thanks for the Preservation of our beloved Sovereign, and we most fervently pray that the Divine Mercy may very long extend to these Kingdoms the Blessings of his equitable Government. Suffer us to assure your Majesty of of our inviolable Attachment to your Royal Perſon and the glorious Conſtitution of our Country, and that we are ready with our Property and our Lives to ſtand forward in Defence of them.

[Preſented by N. G. Clarke, Eſq; Recorder.]

St. James's, November 24.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Convener, Deacons of the Fourteen Incorporated Trades, and the other Members of the Trades Houſe of the City of Glaſgow.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal and affectionate Subjects, the Convener, Deacons, and Remanent Members of the Trades Houſe, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and addreſs your Majeſty as the Father of your People, with Aſſurances of our inviolable Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government.

We join with an alarmed and aſtoniſhed Nation in expreſſing our Deteſtation of thoſe Principles which have led to the moſt horrid Aſſault on your ſacred Perſon.

We likewiſe heartily join with a loyal and grateful People in our Thankſgivings to Almighty God, whoſe merciful Providence hath preſerved your precious Life, and in our Congratulations of your Majeſty on this happy Occaſion.

Aſſured that the Wiſdom of Parliament will point out the moſt effectual Means for repreſſing that Spirit of Licentiouſneſs which threatens our moſt valuable Rights, and that the Energy of your Majeſty's Government will give theſe Meaſures their full Effect.

We conſider with Joy the many happy Years of Proſperity we have experienced in your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, and look forward for a Continuance of the ſame.

Signed in our Name, Preſence, and by Appointment of the Trades Houſe, by the Convener, Rob. Robertſon.

Glaſgow, Nov. 12, 1795.

[Tranſmitted by William Macdowall, Eſq;]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town Council of Paiſley, in Council aſſembled, beg Leave to expreſs our moſt ſincere, unanimous and cordial Congratulations upon your Majeſty's Deliverance from the alarming Attempt that has been made againſt your Majeſty's Perſon, when paſſing to and from your Parliament. Filled with Abhorrence of every Diſorder in Society, we cannot but be ſhocked at the Idea of an Attempt ſo audacious in itſelf, and which might have drawn Conſequences after it ſo deeply deplorable. We are perſuaded that an Aſſault ſo daringly wicked could only be either meditated or executed by Perſons the moſt unprincipled and deſperate; but we are happy in the Thought that the Subjects of theſe Realms in general are actuated by a very oppoſite Spirit; and it is our ſincere and ardent Wiſh that your Majeſty may long reign and proſper, ſecure in the Affections of a free and happy People; and that every Proſperity and Bleſſing may long be poured down on your illuſtrious Houſe.

Signed by Hugh Jamieſon, Eſq; Chief Magiſtrate, in our Preſence and by our Appointment, at Paiſley, the 6th Day of November, 1795.

Hugh Jamieſon.

[Tranſmitted by William Macdowall, Eſq;]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Freeholders and others of the County of Stirling, aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Noblemen, Freeholders and others of the County of Stirling, aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon, with the moſt affectionate Sentiments of Veneration and Reſpect, to expreſs our Horror and Indignation at the moſt daring Aſſault and flagitious Outrage offered to your Majeſty, in your Majeſty's paſſing to and from your Parliament, at the Moment of your Majeſty's exerciſing the ſaid Duties of the Crown, and fulfilling your Part of our moſt excellent Conſtitution.

Gratefully as we enjoy every Bleſſing derived to us, in common with our Fellow free-born Subjects, from your Majeſty's mild and paternal Government, we are unable in adequate Terms to expreſs our Concern, that a Period has arrived, when any Perſon within your Majeſty's Dominions ſhould be found ſo daringly wicked as to hazard, by ſuch atrocious Violence, the Safety of your Royal Perſon, and therein the Happineſs of the whole Country.

It is, therefore, with the moſt profound Sentiments of Gratitude to the Supreme Diſpoſer of all Events, that we have to congratulate your Majeſty on your providential Eſcape from ſuch traiterous Attacks, dangerous at once to the Public Tranquillity, and in Violation of the glorious Conſtitution, of which your Majeſty forms ſo important a Part.

Permit us, Sire, to return your Majeſty our moſt grateful Thanks for your gracious Intention to give the ſpeedieſt Effect to a Negociation for a general Peace, on juſt and ſuitable Terms, whenever an Order of Things ſhall arrive in France compatible with the Tranquillity of other Countries, and affording a reaſonable Expectation of Security and Permanency in a Treaty ſo to be concluded.

Convinced, as we are, that nothing will be ſo likely to bring about ſuch a Peace as firm and vigorous Meaſures in the Proſecution of the War, we feel it not more our bounden Duty than our ſteady Determination to contribute every Thing in our Power to that deſirable End, and to ſupport your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government inviolate from all your foreign and domeſtic Enemies.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of the Meeting, by the Duke of Montroſe, Lord Lieutenant of the County, and Chairman of the Meeting, held at Stirling the 17th Day of November, 1795.

MONTROSE.

[Tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Montroſe.]

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Volunteer Corps of the Town of Stirling.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Stirling Volunteers, impreſſed with a deep Senſe of the great Happineſs and many ineſtimable Bleſſings that we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and beneficent Government, cannot but expreſs our utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation at the late atrocious and treaſonable Aſſault made on your Majeſty's Royal Perſon.

While we view with Concern the groundleſs Complaints that wicked and deſigning Men make againſt our happy Conſtitution, how muſt it fill us with Alarm and Aſtoniſhment when we hear that they even proceed the Length of lifting up their Hands againſt a Prince who is the Friend and Father of his People? We rejoice, however, that Divine Providence averted the malicious Aim, and we truſt that He will continue to watch over your Majeſty's Perſon and Happineſs, and ever defeat the vile and perfidious Attempts of either your public or private Foes.

That your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous, that you may live in the Affections and Eſteem of your People, and that your Crown may deſcend to your lateſt Poſterity, is the ſincere Wiſh and ardent Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt loyal andl faithfu Servants.

Signed, in Preſence and by our Appointment, at Stirling, this 16th Day of November, 1795 Years.

John M'Killop, Captain.

[Tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Montroſe.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Vicinity of Knareſborough, in the Weſt Riding of the County of York, whoſe Names are hereunto ſubſcribed, beg Leave to expreſs our Deteſtation and Ahhorrence of the atrocious Outrage committed againſt your Majeſty on the Opening the preſent Seſſion of Parliament, and to declare our Readineſs on all Occaſions to uſe our utmoſt Endeavours for the Protection of your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, being fully convinced that neither our Liberties nor Property can be ſafe amidſt ſuch diabolical Attempts as have been made, and, we are apprehenſive, are ſtill meditating by an unprincipled and deſperate Faction, unleſs your Majeſty, as the Head and Life of our preſent happy and unparalleled Conſtitution in Church and State, be in Safety alſo.

We deeply regret the too evident Truth, that there has long exiſted a dangerous Combination of diſcontented and daring Men, who have had Recourſe to every Machination, and at laſt even to Violence, at once to dethrone your Majeſty and ſubvert the Codſtitution of this Kingdom.

And we humbly beg Leave to thank your Majeſty for your gracious and paternal Care in the Inſtitution of temporary Yeomanry Cavalry and Volunteer Corps for the Aid and Support of your Government, the happy Effects whereof have been ſuch in this Part of the County of York as to have reſtrained the Turbulence and counteracted the Intentions of the Seditious; and we truſt their future Exertions will, if required, be ſuch as to evince to your Majeſty the Utility and Wiſdom of making ſuch Meaſures more general.

[Tranſmitted by Robert Hervey, Eſq;]

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and Heritors of the Shire of Edinburgh.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the Noblemen and Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, Commiſſioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Edinburgh, humbly approach your Majeſty's Throne to declare our ſteady Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and to expreſs our ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Eſcape from the daring and atrocious Attack made on your Royal Perſon.

We were filled with equal Aſtoniſhment and Abhorrence at the villainous Attempt againſt the Life of our beloved Sovereign, the ſole Object of whoſe Reign has been to increaſe the Happineſs and Proſperity of his People; and we truſt that Parliament in its Wiſdom will take efficient Meaſures to prevent the Miſchiefs that may ariſe from dangerous Combinations of ill deſigned People.

While we beheld with much Concern the flagitious Attempt of daring Villains, we join with real Pleaſure the general Voice of the Nation in expreſſing our Thankſgivings to Almighty Providence, by whoſe Divine Interpoſition the wicked Deſigns of your Enemies have been defeated, and your Majeſty's Life preſerved for the Welfare and Happineſs of your People.

Signed by our Preſes in Name, and by Warrant of the Meeting, at Edinburgh, this 16th Day of November, 1795.

(Signed) BUCCLEUGH.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Lochmaben, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, and to congratulate your Majeſty on your late providential Eſcape from the flagitious Attempt made upon your ſacred Perſon by a Set of lawleſs, profligate and worthleſs Men.

While we take this Opporunity of expreſſing our Abhorrence at the Outrage offered, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our faithful Attachment and Loyalty to your Perſon, Crown and Dignity, and to our happy Conſtitution, which we truſt will for ever remain inviolate.

We have directed our Chief Magiſtrate to ſubſcribe this in our Name and Preſence.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

SIRE,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Council of the Borough of Sanquhar, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and to expreſs the Horror

Horror and Aſtoniſhment with which we have read the Accounts of the late Inſult offered to your Majeſty's Perſon. While we join in execrating the Villainy of an Attempt ſo atrocious, that the very Idea makes us ſhudder, we render Thanks to the Almighty Being, who has ſhielded your Majeſty from Danger, and preſerved a Life ſo deſervedly dear to your People. And we eagerly embrace this Opportunity to aſſure your Majeſty of our zealous and ſteady Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and to expreſs our ſincere and ardent Wiſhes, that that venerable and truly excellent Fabric, the Britiſh Conſtitution, of which we conceive the Throne which your Majeſty fills to be the Cape Stone, may laſt unimpaired to the End of Time.

[Tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Queenſberry.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Armed Aſſociation of Dundee Volunteers.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne on the preſent Occaſion.

Highly ſenſible of the Happineſs and Security we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, and impreſſed with a juſt Regard for our ineſtimable Conſtitution, we have learned with Surprize and deep Abhorrence of the late daring and traiterous Attack on your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon.

Deign then, moſt gracious Sovereign, to accept of this Addreſs and Congratulation of your faithful Dundee Volunteers, as a Teſt of the unalterable Affection they owe to your Majeſty, as the Father of your People, and on whoſe perſonal Safety depends the Welfare of the Nation.

That to your Majeſty Providenoe may grant Length of Days and unalloyed Felicity; that you may continue uninterrupted to wield the Sceptre of theſe Realms, and to reign in the Hearts of a free and grateful People, is our moſt fervent Wiſh.

Rob. Duff, Captain-Commandant.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and the Capital Burgeſſes (the Common Council) of your Majeſty's antient Borough of Axbridge in the County of Somerſet.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and the Capital Burgeſſes (the Common Council) of your antient Borough of Axbridge, humbly approach your Majeſty with our ſincereſt Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Deliverance from the groſs and violent Outrage offered to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, as well as to the Laws and Conſtitution of this Kingdom. Be aſſured we ſhall never ceaſe to expreſs our moſt grateful Acknowledgments to the Supreme Diſpoſer of Events for his kind Interpoſition on that Occaſion. We are all attached by the ſtrongeſt Ties of Love and Affection to your Majeſty, not leſs as a Member of Society, than as filling the moſt exalted Character in the Conſtitution under which we have the Happineſs of living; and we confidently hope that this diabolical Attempt, which has been thus fortunately fruſtrated, will ultimately tend to the Advantage of your Majeſty and all good Subjects. As we cannot but fear, from this Event, that there exiſts in this Country ſome of the worſt of Enemies, Men ſo loſt to every Senſe of what is right, that they heſitate not at any Means to deſtroy that Conſtitution under which they live, and are daily and hourly reaping the Benefits of feeling this, we think every one muſt ſee the Neceſſity of now ſtanding forward to declare his Sentiments, and to ſhew his Willingneſs to cruſh, in it's Infancy, every Endeavour which has not clearly for it's Object the Safety of your Majeſty's Perſon, the Support of the Conſtitution, and the Welfare and Happineſs of Society: And that it may ever pleaſe Heaven to protect your Majeſty and this Kingdom from all foreign and domeſtic Enemies, and that your Majeſty may long continue to reign over a free and loyal People, is our moſt fervent Prayer.

Given under our Common Seal, this 17th Day of November, 1795.

St. James's, November 24.

THE following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, have been by him preſented to the King; which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble and dutiful Addreſs of the Convener of the Trades and the Deacons of the whole Incorporations of the City of Edinburgh.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Convener of the Trades, and the Deacons of the whole Incorporations of the City of Edinburgh, with the unanimous Concurrence and Approbation of our Conſtituents, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with Sentiments of ſincere Congratulation on the Safety of your Royal Perſon.

We learned with Surpriſe and Indignation, that while your Majeſty was proceeding, in the Exerciſe of your Royal Prerogative, to open the Seſſion of your Parliament, a Number of abandoned Men aſſailed your Majeſty's Perſon with Violence and Outrage, to the imminent Danger of your precious Life. This atrocious Conduct, wholly unſuitable to the Character which Britiſh Subjects have long maintained, we can attribute only to thoſe profligate Principles, which daring Innovators have of late laboured to inſtil into the Minds of ignorant People in ſeditious Aſſemblies.

We conſider the Outrage which has been offered to your Majeſty, in all its Circumſtances, as a Blow which has been aimed at the Conſtitution of this Country; we bleſs God that it has failed of its diſaſtrous Purpoſe; and we truſt that this intereſting Event, while it excites the Emotions of anxious Attachment to your Majeſty as the Father of your People, will confirm all Ranks of Men in their Adherence to the ſound Principles of good Order and legal Subordination; that it will in its Conſequences lead to ſuch Meaſures as may ſecure your Majeſty's Perſon and Authority from future Dangers; and that by the Proofs which this Event involves of Conſpiracy againſt the State, the Zeal of Britons may acquire a Force which ſhall ever be found irreſiſtible in the Protection of the Conſtitution.

Britons

Signed by our Appointment, and in our Preſence, this 17th Day of November, in the Year 1795.

Thomas Hay, Convener.

[Tranſmitted by Thomas Hay, Eſq; Convener of Trades.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Magiſtrates and Council of your antient Town of Stirling, beg Leave to offer your Majeſty our warmeſt Congratulations on your Majeſty's providential Eſcape from the atrocious Attempt againſt your Majeſty's Perſon while on your Progreſs to open the preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

We cannot but view this as another ſignal Mark of that Almighty Goodneſs which, amidſt the Calamities with which neighbouring Nations are afflicted, has been graciouſly pleaſed to ſhower down ſuch manifold Bleſſings upon us: Amongſt the moſt conſpicuous of theſe is that Unity of Intereſt and Sentiment which ſubſiſts betwixt your Majeſty and the Subjects of theſe Realms; an Unity of Intereſt founded upon our happy Conſtitution of Government, by which each Order of the State is mutually cheriſhed and ſupported by the other, and an Unity of Sentiment flowing from the pure Fountain of rational Freedom.

May our Minds be deeply impreſſed with a grateful Senſe of ſo many Mercies, which will prove the beſt Means to inſure a Continuance of them, and of the Prolongation of your Majeſty's Health and Safety.

Signed in our Name and by our Appointment, at the Town-Houſe of Stirling, the 14th Day of November, 1795.

John Gilchriſt, Provoſt.

[Tranſmitted by John M'Killop and William Anderſon, Eſqrs.]

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magiſtrates, Council, and Miniſter of the Burgh of Newburgh, in Fife, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with Sentiments of ſincere Congratulatiou on your Majeſty's providential Deliverance from the daring Attack lately made upon your Majeſty's Perſon, which threatened immediate Danger to your Majeſty's Life.

That any among your Majeſty's Subjects ſhould be ſo totally loſt to all Senſe of Duty, and ſo intirely devoid of all Perception of Excellence, ſo utterly wicked and abandoned, as to entertain and manifeſt towards your Majeſty other than the moſt reſpectful and affectionate Sentiments and Behaviour, is to us Matter of the higheſt Aſtoniſhment and moſt afflicting Concern.

We truſt the Power of the Laws will be ſucceſsfully employed in bringing to ſpeedy and condign Puniſhment the Perpetrators and Abettors of the atrocious Crimes recently committed againſt your Majeſty; and we rely, with Confidence, on the Wiſdom of Parliament for the Enactment of ſuch Statutes as ſhall in future ſecure your Majeſty from a Repetition of ſimilar Inſults and Alarms.

That your Majeſty may receive the conſtant Protection of Divine Providence, and in the interrupted Enjoyment of perfect Safety and Proſperity, under the Guardian Care of Heaven, may continue to draw the Affections and promote the Happineſs of all Ranks in your Majeſty's Dominions, are, and ſhall be, the ſincere Wiſhes and earneſt Prayers of, may it pleaſe your Majeſty, your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Magiſtrates, Council, and Miniſter of the Burgh of Newburgh, in Fife.

Signed by the Chief Magiſtrate, in Name and by Appointment of the Magiſtrates, Council, and Miniſter.

A Common Council, holden in the Chamber of the Guildhall of the City of London, on Wednesday the 18th Day of November, 1795.

RESOLVED, that the Thanks of this Court be given to the Right Honourable THOMAS SKINNER, late Lord Mayor of this City, for the unwearied Attention and diſtinguiſhed Ability he has ſhewn in executing the Duties of that high and important Office; particularly for his upright and impartial Adminiſtration of Public Juſtice; for his manly and conſtitutional Conduct during the State Trials; for his zealous and ſucceſsful Endeavours to preſerve the Peace of the City, at a Period peculiarly critical, when the greateſt Caution, the cleareſt Diſcretion, and the ſoundeſt Judgment, were moſt eminently required, and moſt happily diſplayed; for his meritorious Exertions to compoſe and adjuſt Diſputes between ſeveral Bodies of labouring Perſons and their Employers, eſpecially the Coal-Porters, who, under his well-timed and prudent Interference, were both induſtrious and content, which reflects laſting Honour on his Name and conſtant Luſtre on his Character; for his Humanity, Liberality and Activity in ſupplying the Wants of the Poor, whoſe Comfort and Happineſs he has in every Circumſtance been ſtudious to promote; for his Readineſs on every important Occaoſin to aſſemble this Court, where his ſteady Perſeverance to preſerve Order in Debate, and his affable and truly polite Deportment to the Members, were equally and invariably conſpicuous; for the general Vigilance, Benevolence, and Public Spirit, which has gained him the Eſteem of all good Men, and rendered his Mayoralty worthy of being recommended by the Lord Chief Baron of the Exchequer, (in the warmeſt Terms of Approbation) as a Model of Imitation to his Succeſſors.
